

Important information and deadlines:

The speaker submits his/her presentation (PowerPoint) no later than 28.09.2026 and the final presentation (PDF format) until 16.10.2026 the latest. The corresponding template will be sent in due time.

If the speaker withdraws his /her lecture after 07.09.2026, the organizer will charge a processing fee of EUR 250.

The speaker grants the organiser the right to record the speaker and the presentation, including any slides or presentations shown by the speaker, in audiovisual form, and to distribute the recordings to participants of the event via YouTube on the internet, thereby making them available to the public. Furthermore, the speaker grants the organiser the right to distribute the slides or presentations shown during the lecture on the event's website after the event, thereby making them available to the public.

The speaker warrants that any media presented during the lecture (e.g. images, films, speech, music) are free from third-party rights or may be used free of charge on the aforementioned channels.

If copyright-protected content belonging to third parties is incorporated, the speaker shall secure the necessary evidence proving permission to use such content in their presentation and shall produce it upon request. The speaker undertakes to indemnify the organiser against any and all claims by third parties arising from an infringement of industrial property rights and/or a copyright infringement in his/her presentation. This indemnity obligation also includes the obligation to fully indemnify the organiser against legal defence costs (e.g. court and legal fees).
