On 25 and 26 June 2025, the international fire protection industry will meet at FeuerTrutz in Nuremberg. It is the only European trade fair and congress to bring together active, passive and organisational fire protection solutions. The focus is on innovative products for fire prevention and fire containment, which are not only presented at the exhibition stands. A special highlight is the new FeuerTrutz Arena, which enables practical discussions, presentations and networking on a central platform. The tried-and-tested forums of the asecos academy and A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO DIGITISATION also offer exciting insights. The varied programme is complemented by the Fire Protection EXPERIENCE, the Training & Career Meeting Point the joint stand startups@FeuerTrutz. As usual, the Fire Protection Congress, the industry's largest and most diverse training event,
