Products with BKA permission / military weapons, guns, restricted items, products belonging to firearm regulation of the EC:

Due to instructions of the German customs authorities, following products must be packed separately from general cargo:

- products with special approval of Bundeskriminalamt (BKA) – please mark the package with labels saying: "special approved goods - BKA"
- Weapons, parts of it, other equipment for military use (BMWK approval required), guns.
- Ammunition patterns or parts thereof must not be functional, but only used as dummies, ammunition is not allowed
- restricted items (laser, night vision optics, special knives, part of guns)
- all goods mentioned in the firearms regulation of the EC

Please pack this kind of products into separate packages. Put a copy of the permission, commercial invoice, packing list in an envelope and on top of the packages.

If you are shipping all your products on a pallet / in a crate, please put products mentioned under point 1.2 into special marked cases and place them on top of the pallet / the crate before it will be closed / stretched / strapped. If we must unpack the whole shipment to find products, we will bill our expenses for personnel and equipment to your company.

Take care that packing is save and solid. Carton boxes are not the right way to transport weapons and guns and might be replaced by us on your costs!

Please put a combination lock on crates or wrap pallets fully with a dark foil. (Don't forget to give us the key or lock combination in this case! – if the combination/key is not given to us the lock will be forced open and not replaced)

If packing regulations are not being followed, and we must search for special products – the fee will be:

€ 100,00 per shipment minimum or according to expenditure

2.4. Customs clearance:

It will be done a temporary clearance for all shipments coming for the show from third countries. For that we need a completed customs POA (Power of Attorney)

Selling products to a buyer with agreement/contract before the show:

Please note that is NOT allowed to sell any products during the IWA show! All temporarily imported goods must be sent back to the original place of departure (shipper=consignee).

During the show:

It is forbidden to remove products which are temporary imported from your booth at the EnforceTac 2025 or IWA OutdoorClassics 2025. Do not give away anything else except goods/products imported on a permanent customs clearance basis, for example advertising material (catalogs, pens, lanyards etc.). Selling or giving away any products which are in bond (=temporary clearance for time exhibition is running) and taking them away from the booth and fairground will have consequences by the German Customs Authorities (penalty and duties/tax). If you have temporarily imported goods/products that you would like to sell or give away after the end of the show, please check first, if you are allowed to definitive import them! In this case, you must get in contact with us, so we can finish the temporary customs clearance before giving them away.

All shipments imported on a temporary customs clearance basis must be re-exported after the end of the exhibition. Please also follow up the above-mentioned packing instructions (point 1.2.) ! If there will be differences in weight/number of packages/number of guns/BKA goods, the whole shipment will be held in customs and cannot be re-exported accordingly.

Please remove batteries (especially lithium) from your shipment for air transports.

For the re-export of your shipment which is containing weapons, restricted items, BKA goods, goods belonging to firearms regulation we will contact you either before show starts or latest while it is running in order to submit a special-order form which must be filled in. We need this order with all information and details for issuing the customs form for the re-export. If you would like to get form in advance, please contact us! Please also note in order to reexport the goods we need all needed permits and information. Please remember that the exhibitor is responsible for all necessary permits. Schenker is not the permit holder and can only export on behalf of the exhibitor with complete and valid documents and permits.

The Client assures and warrants compliance with all export control regulations to which they are subject, including anti-boycott provisions, sanctions requirements and sanction list screening in relation to import, export, customs clearance and national transactions, in the performance of their duties as per this Agreement at present and in future. He is responsible for obtaining all necessary licenses, approvals, permits and/or exemptions. Particular care must be taken when exporting dual-use goods (in accordance with Annex I of the EU Dual-Use Regulation), goods listed in Part 1 Section A or B of the German Export List and with regard to applicable embargo regulations.
