Conditions:

Products and developments can be entered subject to the following conditions:

● The products or developments shall be available as prototypes or as commercial off the shelf products. In the case of prototypes, the core functionality must be implemented.

● The products or developments shall be developed, manufactured and marketed by a direct exhibitor or co-exhibitor to the embedded world 2027.

● Participation of the exhibitor in a shared booth shall be accepted.

● If the products and developments were created in co-operation with other companies or sponsored by third parties (e.g. financially), this involvement in the creation process shall be clearly mentioned in the application.

● All information and documents shall be submitted in English.

● At least one responsible person shall be present at the embedded award ceremony, if the submission is shortlisted.

Legal aspects:

● The applicants declare their agreement to partial publication of the information stated by them (e.g. descriptions, illustrations) on the social networks of embedded world.

● Apart from such publication, the NürnbergMesse GmbH agrees not to use the products, developments and documents submitted for any purpose other than for the review and the award processes.

● The decisions of the jury are final.

● Recourse to legal action is excluded.