

Sustainability Statement

Westfield Specialty Managing Agency recognise the key role of the insurance industry in the climate transition and the importance of understanding sustainability issues. We continue to actively monitor the expectations of our stakeholders and utilise relevant information across our business to support our strategy and responsible decision-making processes.