POINTS OF DIFFERENCE

Westfield Specialty's Credit & Political Risks team has a particular focus on complex, structured credit risk. Our core client base includes leading global commercial banks and public agencies (principally multilateral/development finance institutions). Within credit, a wide range of asset classes are offered, from short-term letter of credit business to long-term digital infrastructure project finance. We commit significant resources to understanding our clients' evolving businesses and their insurance requirements, aiming to remain at the forefront of the credit market. Westfield provides capacity to Tierra, - an energy transition project finance MGA - and to Mercury Trade Credit - a top up and wholeturnover trade credit focused MGA - and is a core insurer within the Balthazar aviation finance product.
