

Nationwide Survey Honors Bonefish Grill with Top Seafood Restaurant Designation

May, 2015

Results of Nation's Restaurant News' 2015 Consumer Picks Survey Announced

TAMPA, Fla. (May 6, 2015) – The USDA recommends that Americans make seafood the main protein food on the plate twice a week, and the nation has weighed in on its favorite place to go for dishes from the sea. The fresh fish experts at Bonefish Grill are proud to announce that it was the highest ranked of all seafood restaurants among consumers' top 25 brands in a survey conducted by the leading trade magazine Nation's Restaurant News (NRN).

Bonefish Grill also received top honors as fourth in consumers' top forty Casual Dining establishments, with 93% of respondents naming food quality as most important in this category. "We are honored to have been designated the nation's favorite seafood restaurant," says Bonefish Grill president Gregg Scarlett. "We're proud that consumers appreciate our variety of innovative seafood and wood-grilled specialties, featuring seasonal choices, the highest quality fresh ingredients, and offerings that also take value into account."

Working with research company WD Partners, NRN's 2015 Consumer Picks survey included more than 42,000 vetted consumer ratings and analyzes consumer perceptions of 172 restaurant brands. The report measures perceptions of restaurant brands on factors such as service, food quality and atmosphere.

Bonefish Grill was also recently recognized by Nation's Restaurant News with its 2015 MenuMasters Award for their innovative, guest-inspired menu that also includes meat selections, in addition to a wide variety of seafood offerings.
