FROM SINGAPORE FARMS TO TABLES

Have you ever wondered where your food comes from? Currently, Singapore imports more than 90% of our food. To strengthen Singapore's food security, the government has set a "30 by 30" target to build up our capability and capacity to produce 30% of our nutritional needs locally and sustainably by 2030. You can play a part in strengthening Singapore's food security by making more informed choices when you shop and eat.

DID YOU KNOW?

Singapore has over 200 local farms that provide us with a range of food items, from fish and seafood to leafy vegetables, eggs and mushrooms.

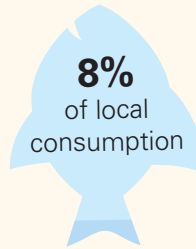

In 2020, Singapore farms produced:

616 million
hen eggs

11,656 tonnes
of leafy vegetables

3,960 tonnes
of fish

WHY BUY LOCAL?

When you buy homegrown produce, you support the local farming industry, boost Singapore's food security and lower your carbon footprint. Local produce arrives quicker and retains more nutrients. Also, because it is easily traced to the farm source, quality is assured.

WHERE TO BUY LOCAL PRODUCE

You can find local produce at major supermarkets and online grocery retailers.

If you're shopping at Cold Storage or Giant outlets, don't forget to present your PASSION Card during check-out to earn TapForMore points!

You can also purchase directly from local farms. For a list of farms and their websites, visit:

Identify local produce by looking out for this logo:

Now that you're all stocked up on local produce, there's no better way to enjoy it than with a home-cooked meal. Simply follow your favourite recipe and use local produce, or try out these recipes to make a delicious SG Local dish!

EXPLORE THE RAIL CORRIDOR (CENTRAL)

Images courtesy of NParks

There's only one place where you can explore Singapore's railway heritage and appreciate the local biodiversity – the Rail Corridor. Formerly used to transport goods between Singapore and the rest of the Malay Peninsula, the 24km railway line has since undergone enhancement works to become a seamless trail that is perfect for hiking and enjoying nature.

The 4km central stretch of the Rail Corridor opened this year with enhanced trails and paths. This unique green space has something for everyone, whether you're a railway enthusiast, a nature lover or a fitness fan!

LOCAL FLORA AND FAUNA

The wonders of nature await you at the Rail Corridor (Central). As part of recent improvements, native trees and shrubs were planted to restore the native forest belt, thus enhancing biodiversity. From the Corridor, you can access Bukit Timah Nature Reserve and other nearby nature parks.

Far from the city's bustle, immerse yourself in lush greenery and take in scenic views of Singapore's quarries.

HERITAGE HIGHLIGHTS

UPPER BUKIT TIMAH TRUSS BRIDGE

Admire the rustic beauty of this meticulously restored bridge, which dates back to 1932. Built according to the Pratt truss design, its structure consists of vertical and diagonal elements that slope down towards the centre.

Did you know? The Upper Bukit Timah truss bridge is the only Pratt truss bridge in Singapore.

SINGAPORE QUARRY BRIDGE

This bridge's weathered façade makes for an atmospheric backdrop that is perfect for a photo opportunity.

Back in the day, the bridge acted as a link between the quarry and the old Ford Factory area. Today, it provides visitors with access to the Dairy Farm Nature Park. Stop by the Singapore Quarry lookout point to admire the towering cliff walls, and catch a glimpse of the wildlife that inhabit the lake beneath.

As part of the development works, the railway station's key historical features will be sensitively restored to highlight its old-school charm and rich heritage. Original architectural elements such as the Equipment Room's track switching levers and associated gear will be retained!

BUKIT TIMAH RAILWAY STATION

Take a step into the past when you visit this conserved railway station, a key historical feature of Singapore's railway heritage.

It is one of two remaining 1930s-era stations along the Rail Corridor, and is currently being repurposed as a heritage gallery. The nearby Station Master's Quarters will be converted to a food and beverage site overlooking the community lawns — all the more reason to visit the Rail Corridor again when this is completed in 2022*!

*The development works are expected to be completed by mid-2022, subject to any changes in the timeline due to COVID-19.

GETTING THERE

Rail Corridor (Central) is highly accessible, with Hillview and King Albert Park MRT Stations (Downtown Line) at either end.

BE A HERO, GO ZERO

You've probably heard the term "zero waste" a lot in recent years. But what does it mean, and how can we incorporate this concept into our lives? Simply speaking, a zero waste approach means reducing what we throw away and reusing or recycling these items wherever possible.

Did you know? Singapore has only one landfill — Semakau Landfill. It was previously a sea space between two islands, Pulau Sakeng and Pulau Semakau. If Singapore maintains its current waste disposal rate, Semakau Landfill will run out of space by 2035.

We all have a part to play in reducing the amount of waste we generate. Here are some helpful tips for you to get started!

REDUCE

Plastic consumption

- Bring your own container or tumbler when ordering takeaway
- Use reusable bags instead of plastic bags when buying groceries

Food waste

- Don't over order — ask for a smaller portion if you think that you won't be able to finish your meal

REUSE

- Donate unwanted books, clothes and toys to those who need them
- Upcycle household items to give them a second life and new purpose

Here are some ideas to try out:

- Turn an old mouse pad into drink coasters
- Use an egg carton to organise your accessories

RECYCLE

Recycle your e-waste

- If e-waste is not disposed of properly, it could result in environmental pollution and harm to human health
- Drop off your items in the e-waste recycling bins which have been set up at various public areas islandwide

Make use of the blue recycling bins to recycle paper, plastic, glass or metal items

- Check the label on the blue bin to ensure that your items are suitable for recycling
- Rinse your recyclables (e.g. drink cans, detergent bottles) first to get rid of contaminants
