The Luxembourg Stock Exchange offers a Financial News Service supporting issuers to disseminate information to (I) the general public, through its website (www.luxse.com) and (II) financial media and data vendors.

This subscription form is applicable for the publication and dissemination of information not falling in the scope of the Luxembourg law of 11 January 2008 on transparency requirements as amended from time to time (hereafter the "Transparency Law") implementing the European Union Directive 2004/109/EC of 15 December 2004 on the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market (hereafter the "Transparency Obligation Directive"). In addition, and for your information, the CSSF (the banking and financial activities regulator in Luxembourg) has published in article 3 of its Circular 08/337 of 6 February 2008 as amended from time to time an exhaustive and explicit list of regulated information to be published in the context of the mentioned above Transparency Law.

Therefore, this form should be used in three main situations:

- ✓ by issuers with securities admitted to trading on the Euro MTF market wishing to publish information required in Chapter 10, Part 1 of the Rules and regulation of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange;
- ✓ by issuers with securities admitted to trading on one of the markets operated by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange willing to publish any information not falling within the scope of regulated information in accordance with Transparency Law;
- ✓ by issuers with no security admitted to trading on one of the markets operated by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange willing to publish notices / press releases.

As a consequence, this form is the one to be used by investment funds other than the closed-type where part or all their securities are admitted to trading one of the markets operated by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange willing to publish information and for investment funds of all types with no security admitted to trading on one of the markets operated by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange willing to publish notices / press releases.

Information and/or notices / press releases will be published and disseminated as is, without any modification and/or alteration by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. Therefore, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will only accept notices / press releases in PDF format in order to avoid the risk of data corruption.

Notices / press releases received after the market closure of a given trading day are disclosed at the latest before the market opening of the next trading day.

Fees

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange applies a fee of EUR 500 per document published. An administrative fee of EUR 125 is added for all manually executed FNS submissions. All prices are expressed exclusive of VAT. The fees will be paid in Euro (EUR) by credit card or by bank transfer to the bank account specified in the invoice by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, and the client undertakes to pay all banking charges incurred in connection with the payment of the fees. Any payment owed by the client to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange must be made not later than 30 days after the relevant invoice is sent out by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. Any query regarding an invoice must be raised by the client before payment becomes due. Failure by the client to pay within the period mentioned above any amounts due under this subscription form shall make the client liable to pay to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange interest at the rate applicable in Luxembourg for commercial matters.

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange accepts VISA, MASTERCARD and AMEX.

Liability and Legal Disclaimer

Interruption of the service

The Luxembourg Stock Exchange cannot guarantee that the Financial News Service will be uninterrupted. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange may interrupt, without any liability or responsibility, the Financial News Service, in whole or in part, without prior notice, as a result of the occurrence of any event beyond the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's control. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange also reserves the right to temporarily suspend all or part of the Financial News Service as a result of any maintenance, upgrade, update, enhancement or incident resolution operations. In the circumstances mentioned above, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange will make its best efforts so as to resolve such interruption or disruption within an appropriate timeframe. However, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange is in no way liable for such interruptions nor for any delay in the reestablishment of the connection. Moreover, the Luxembourg Stock Exchange is in no way liable for any direct or indirect damages arising in particular from the interruption or dysfunction, for any reason whatsoever, of the Internet service.

Applicable law and access to the website

The information made available on the website and the publication of such information are governed by Luxembourg law. The person who connects him/herself to the website has to abide by the legislation of his/her country of residence or of connection. Access to the information contained on the website from any foreign jurisdiction is made at the visitor's own risk. Such person will bear any direct or indirect consequences ensuing from an infringement of the relevant legal and regulatory provisions. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange is in no way liable for any such infringement.
