Laetitia HAMON

Chief Operating Officer,
Member of the Executive Committee

Laetitia Hamon is the Chief Operating Officer and a member of the Executive Committee at the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (LuxSE), where she oversees the exchange's international primary market activities and market and surveillance operations, as well as its UN-awarded platform for sustainable finance, the Luxembourg Green Exchange (LGX).

Laetitia joined LuxSE in July 2020 as Head of Sustainable Finance, leading the exchange's sustainable finance strategy before taking on the additional responsibility of Head of Operations in July 2025. Laetitia was appointed to the European Commission's prestigious High-Level Expert Group on scaling up sustainable finance in low- and middle-income countries in 2022.

As a pioneer in sustainable finance, Laetitia started her career as an ESG analyst for an extra-financial rating agency in 2008. Passionate about the topic, Laetitia decided to dedicate her career to sustainable finance and has built in-depth expertise on the matter for the past 18 years. After gaining experience from the investment fund industry through different positions at Thomson Reuters and ALFI – the Association of the Luxembourg Fund Industry, she spent 8 years managing and then leading the Sustainable Finance audit and advisory practice at KPMG in Luxembourg.

Laetitia holds a Master's degree in International Management from the Institut Supérieur Européen de Gestion (ISEG) and a Master's degree in Corporate Social Responsibility from École Supérieure des Affaires, Paris XII.
