

Anna Notarianni

Group Chief Impact Officer

Anna Notarianni is Group Chief Impact Officer and a member of the Group Leadership Team since 2018.

Anna Notarianni joined Sodexo's subsidiary Sogeres in 1998 as Marketing and Development Director, a position she held until 2003, when she became Project Manager.

In 2006 she was appointed CEO of the Healthcare Segment in France and joined Sodexo France's Executive Committee (2006-2008) before becoming CEO for Personal and Home Services.

In 2010, she was appointed CEO Benefits & Rewards Services, where she led the digitalization of our services. She was responsible for the management of meal vouchers, gift cards "Spirit of cadeau" and gift vouchers "Tir Groupé".

In September 2015, Anna Notarianni became Region Chair for France and subsequently joined Sodexo's Executive Committee in 2018.

In October 2022, Anna is appointed Group Chief Impact Officer. In this position, Anna's mission is to ensure that Sodexo's values are aligned in operations and that they represent a competitive advantage so that Sodexo is known, recognized and chosen for its leadership as a responsible and committed company.

Deeply committed to Diversity and Inclusion initiatives, Anna Notarianni is constantly encouraging her teams to embrace these initiatives which are proven contributors to enhanced business performance.

Since 2018, she has been a member of the Medef Executive Committee and has become President of the Education Training Skills Commission.

She holds an Executive MBA from HEC, and 3rd cycle degree from ESC Paris. She is member of the APM (Association Progrès du Management).

Anna is a French citizen. She speaks French and English.