

Jeanne Houssin

Group Chief Communications and Public Affairs Officer

Jeanne Houssin has been Director of Communications and Public Affairs since 2023 and a member of the Sodexo Executive Committee since 2024.

Jeanne began her career as a literary agent in New York and Paris, before transitioning to corporate communications. From 2003 to 2008, she worked as an Account Manager at Because (DDB Group), where she led content strategies. In 2008, Jeanne joined the Conservatoire des Arts & Métiers in Paris as External Communications Manager.

In 2010, Jeanne joined Sodexo as Group Internal Communications Manager, before being promoted to Head of Group Internal Communications in 2012. In this role, she led global initiatives during a period of significant organizational transformation.

In 2016, she was appointed Chief of Staff to Sophie Bellon, newly appointed Chairwoman of Sodexo's Board of Directors. Jeanne played a critical role in supporting Sophie's transition on communications and external representation topics, and on the company's major growth and development monitoring.

From 2020 to 2023, Jeanne served on the Leadership Team Sodexo France as Head of Strategic Planning and Transformation Projects. In this capacity, she led strategic initiatives to build and implement solid post-Covid recovery plans.

Jeanne holds a Master's degree from Sciences Po Paris and ESCP Business School. Jeanne is French. She is fluent in English.
