

Your Melbourne journey starts here

Travelling to the city from Station Pier on public transport

Your ship arrives at Station Pier in Port Melbourne, six kilometres from the city centre, and you can travel into the city by bus or tram.

Contactless tap and go is the easiest way to pay for your trip – use your Mastercard or Visa bank card, smartphone or smartwatch. You can also pay using a myki card, Melbourne's reusable travel card.

City – Port Melbourne (quickest journey)

Bus Route 109 runs from Station Pier to Stop 115 – Casino/Southbank in the city, on most cruise ship days, from 8am to 5pm. This is the quickest way to reach the city centre. If you're returning to Station Pier, you'll need to show your cruise ship passenger pass to security for inspection.

Buses don't run on turnaround visits – when ships begin or end a cruise in Melbourne – due to restrictions on Station Pier. Trams run as usual.

Port Melbourne – Box Hill

Tram Route 109 leaves from stop 129 – Beacon Cove/Light Rail, at the end of Station Pier. It travels through Port Melbourne and along Collins Street, in the heart of the city.

Tickets

The easiest way to travel on public transport is by contactless payments.

How to use tap and go

- Mastercard or Visa
- Tap on with your credit or debit card, smartphone or smartwatch, and be sure to tap off the same way
- Make sure you have enough money for your journey before you tap
- Take your card out of your wallet before you tap
- You can only pay for one person per card or device

myki card

Purchase a ready-to-use myki card with enough value to travel all day in Melbourne. If you want to keep travelling, just top up your myki. Buy yours from the myki customer service desk in the cruise ship terminal.

Download the PTV app

Plan your journey and manage your myki with the PTV app. The PTV app is easy to use and has all your transport needs covered.

Download it for free from the App Store or Google Play store, or visit transport.vic.gov.au/app to learn more.
