Rules about your Learner Log Book

If you are under 21 years when you apply for a probationary licence, you must present your completed Learner Log Book and Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion as evidence of 120 hours driving practice.

You must take your official Learner Log Book with you to the VicRoads Customer Service Centre on the day of your drive test.

It will be checked before you can take your test. The VicRoads Licence Testing Officer may ask you questions about the practice driving sessions recorded in your Learner Log Book.

VicRoads will retain your Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion and if required may retain your Learner Log Book.

VicRoads will only accept your Learner Log Book if:

- it is the official Learner Log Book issued by VicRoads (photocopies are not acceptable)
- the total number of driving hours accepted in the Learner Log Book is at least 120 hours
- the total number of night driving hours accepted in the Learner Log Book is at least 20 hours
- all supervising drivers have provided their licence number (instructor number for driving instructors) and signature in the List of Supervising Drivers (see page 5)
- you and a supervising driver have completed and signed the Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion (see page 25).

Read this before starting

VicRoads may not accept any log entries in your Learner Log Book if:

- all details for the log entry are not complete
- · the log entry has not been signed by a supervising driver
- the signing supervising driver does not hold a full (non-probationary) car licence at the time of the trip
- the log entry has not been completed in blue or black pen
- ditto marks (") have been used
- 'White-out' has been used (if you make a mistake, draw a line through the entry and start a new entry on the next line)
- VicRoads is not satisfied that the log entry is valid or complete
- any pages or parts of pages are damaged, illegible or missing
- the supervising driver's signature in the log entry is not exactly the same as the signature in the List of Supervising Drivers or Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion.

If a log entry is not accepted, the driving hours for that trip will not count towards your 120 hours.

Incomplete or incorrect Learner Log Book

The VicRoads Licence Testing Officer may ask you questions about the practice driving sessions recorded in your Learner Log Book. If VicRoads does not accept your Learner Log Book because it is incomplete or incorrect, there are significant consequences:

- · You will lose your booking and test fees.
- You will not be able to undertake your drive test until you present an acceptable Learner Log Book, at another appointment.
- A minimum six week wait could apply before you can take your on-road drive test.

In addition, it is an offence under the Road Safety Act 1986 to obtain, or attempt to obtain, a driver licence through a false statement, misrepresentation or other dishonest means, including falsely completing any part of your Learner Log Book.

The maximum penalty is a significant fine or imprisonment for up to two months.

Lost Learner Log Book

It is recommended that you make copies of the completed pages of your Learner Log Book as you go, in case the original is lost or destroyed. You can use these copies to fill in a replacement Learner Log Book. If your Learner Log Book is lost or destroyed, you must buy a new replacement copy. It can be purchased by contacting VicRoads on 13 11 71 or at a VicRoads Customer Service Centre, RACV branches and some newsagents.

Your replacement Learner Log Book must contain completed trip entries for the minimum total 120 hours of supervised driving experience.

- Details of any previous supervised driving experience must be re-entered in the new Learner Log Book and the appropriate supervising driver must sign each log entry.
- A photocopy of a lost Learner Log Book cannot be used to prove hours of supervised driving experience already completed.

Exemptions

In limited circumstances, VicRoads has the authority to exempt a learner driver from the requirement to complete at least 120 hours of supervised driving experience. The applicant must prove undue hardship or sufficient prior driving experience.

Application forms are available at vicroads.vic.gov.au.

You must apply for an exemption online or present your application form to a VicRoads Customer Service Centre.

An exemption may take up to 15 working days to process.

List of Supervising Drivers

All fully licensed drivers who have provided supervised driving experience to the learner driver must complete an entry in the List of Supervising Drivers. This includes driving instructors.

You should get each of your supervising drivers to complete this section at their first session with you, in case they only supervise you for a short time and are difficult to contact later. Make sure the supervisor who completed the Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion also completes and signs this section.

Please note signature(s) in the List of Supervising Drivers and Declaration of Learner Log Book Completion must be exactly the same as learner log entries.

If you have more than eight supervising drivers, obtain extra copies of this form from VicRoads. Contact VicRoads during office hours on 13 11 71 or download a copy at the VicRoads web site vicroads.vic.gov.au
