

Undue hardship

This form is to be used if you are unable to hold a learner permit for the minimum time it must be held due to undue hardship and wish to apply for an exemption.

Visit transport.vic.gov.au and search 'learner permit minimum holding period exemption' for more information about the process and requirements to apply for this exemption.

To be issued with a Victorian driver licence, you must be 18 years or over.

A hardship exemption will only be granted if undue hardship can be proven and we are satisfied that road safety is not compromised. Any exemption granted may result in conditions imposed on the person's driver licence for a specified period which:

- (a) limit the carriage of passengers
- (b) limit routes of travel
- (c) restrict driving to specified times of the day
- (d) restrict driving to specified days of the week.

Note: You are unlikely to obtain an exemption from the learner permit minimum holding period unless you have a clean driving record.

Who is eligible to apply for an exemption?

To be eligible to apply for this exemption, you must hold a current and valid learner permit. Any exemption granted will commence from the date your licence is issued.

When should an exemption be applied for?

An application for an exemption can be made if you can demonstrate, by providing supporting documentation, that you or your immediate family will suffer undue hardship as a result of holding a permit for the minimum time a permit must be held due to the nature of your occupation, education or family circumstances.

Confirmation that an exemption had been granted must be obtained prior to making an appointment to take a Victorian licence drive test.

What documentation must be provided?

To support the application you need to provide:

- Employment: a letter from the employer verifying the employment and identifying the hardship
- Education: a letter from an educational institution or course coordinator verifying student status, dates and time of attendance and identifying the hardship
- Family circumstances: a letter from a relevant authority (e.g. medical practitioner, parish priest etc.) describing the impact on the family.

Submit application

You need to download this form and fill in the correct sections.

The form will need to be uploaded to vicroads.vic.gov.au along with the supporting documentation to support your exemption application.

Once the application is submitted, you will receive a confirmation email from VicRoads.

Outcome of your application

You will be contacted within 15 working days of submitting your application.

If you have not been contacted you can call 13 11 71 with your learner permit number and the exemption application number for more information.

If your driver licence is cancelled or suspended, any exemption may be withdrawn. This will have an impact on your licence when it is reissued or the suspension ends. If we decide to withdraw the exemption, you will be notified in writing and given an opportunity to show why you should be permitted to retain the exemption. If you don't respond to the notice within the required time, the exemption will be withdrawn without further notice.
