Conditions of permit issue

- 1) A Rally Permit is a 12 month Unregistered Vehicle Permit (UVP) which allows the use of a vehicle for the following purposes:
 - During approved rallies conducted by a club affiliated with a national motorsport organisation approved by VicRoads; or
 - In associated 'transport or liaison stages'* of an approved rally; or
 - Travelling to and from an approved rally; or
 - Travelling to and from scrutineering of an approved rally; or
 - In testing the vehicle for an approved rally (letter from CAMS permitting testing is required); or
 - In conducting official duties (e.g. course cars) of an approved rally (letter from CAMS permitting use is required); or
 - For travelling locally to and from general vehicle repairer; or
 - For travelling to and from specialised repairer.

*'Transport or liaison stages' is defined as non-competitive section of an event that connect the competitive sections, start, finish and any service parks on the route of the event.
- 2) The operator of the vehicle must be the holder of:
 - A current National Rally Licence (or a higher level competition licence), or
 - A current International Rally Licence, or
 - An alternative competition licence approved by VicRoads.
- 3) A log book of a type approved by VicRoads must be maintained and carried in the vehicle when in use. (CAMS logbooks are the only approved type.)
- 4) The permit is not transferable.

The Transport Accident Commission is not liable to pay compensation for claims resulting from motor sport accidents.
