This personal information will be handled by us as permitted or required by the applicable laws. Particularly by the Road Safety Act 1986 and Marine Safety Act 2010. We may disclose the information we collect about you to various organisations and persons as permitted or required by applicable laws, particularly by the Road Safety Act 1986 and Marine Safety Act 2010. This includes the photograph and other information on your driver licence, learner permit or marine licence used for the purposes of biometric matching through the National Driver Licence Facial Recognition Solution for law enforcement, national security, and other purposes. It may also include any health information relating to your licence or registration, or sensitive information concerning any relevant criminal history.

Your information may be disclosed to third parties including our contractors and agents, law enforcement agencies, other road and traffic authorities, Austroads, the Transport Accident Commission, concession and identity verification agencies (including Centrelink Confirmation eServices, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, Service Victoria, Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages, and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade), vehicle manufacturers (for safety recalls), toll road operators, road safety researchers, courts and other organisations or people authorised to use the information.

Your failure to provide the information may result in this form not being processed, or your records not being properly maintained. For further information about our use of your personal and health information, and your rights to access it, go to: dtp.vic.gov.au/privacy or ST Vic's Privacy Policy at safetransport.vic.gov.au/privacy-policy.

Providing false or misleading information or documents is an offence under the Road Safety Act 1986 and Marine Safety Act 2010, as applicable, and can result in you being fined or imprisoned. Further, any authority or approval, given as a result of you providing such information/documents, may be reversed and have no effect.

By signing this form, I declare that the information in this form and related supporting documents is true, correct and complete, and I understand the privacy statement.

Evidence of identity

Please bring your driver licence or learner permit. If you do not have an existing driver licence or learner permit, you must provide evidence of identity.

All evidence of identity documents must be originals and you must also ensure that all names on each of the documents match and are in the same/correct order. Photocopies, certified or otherwise, are not acceptable.

You need to bring:

- one category A evidence document

An acceptable current image stored in VicRoads Driver Licensing System could be used as category A evidence by a person attending a VicRoads Customer Service Centre.

If you do not have a current image stored, you need to provide a category A evidence document, for example:

- Australian passport (current or expired by up to two years)
- overseas passport (current or expired by up to two years if you can provide Australian documentation giving strong evidence of permanent residence (e.g. visa))
- Australian birth certificate (birth extracts and commemorative certificates are not acceptable)

- one category B evidence document

For example a current:

- Medicare card
- Pensioner Concession card
- Department of Veterans' Affairs card
- entitlement card issued by the Commonwealth
- student identity card
- credit or account card issued by a bank, building society or credit union
- phone, gas or electricity bill (or no more than one year old)

- evidence of Victorian residence⁺

If not shown on the category A or B evidence documents or if you have changed address, one document that shows your current address, for example a current:

- contract of sale, lease or rental document
- phone, gas or electricity bill (or no more than one year old)

- evidence of change of name or differing names

If there is a difference in names between the category A and B evidence documents or if you have changed your name, one document that shows your correct name, for example:

- marriage certificate
- divorce paper
- Change of Name certificate
