

What is the My Money Program?

The My Money Program makes financial education accessible and helps empower every Floridian to work towards financial independence.

The My Money Program is designed in two sections:

- For “Me,” or individuals with developmental disabilities.
- For parents, guardians and support providers.

MyMoney

A financial literacy program for individuals with developmental disabilities.

For the individual:

Individuals can focus on important financial skills in a fun and interactive format.

Individuals can learn at their own pace and work through steps based on money basics, making a spending plan, and sources of income and savings.

“Me” Features:

- Games
- Videos
- Fun and helpful tips about money.

Parents, guardians and support providers can access tools and information on the programs and services that are available to assist individuals with developmental disabilities.

Navigating through the different state and federal agencies and organizations that provide assistance can be difficult. We want to help make it easier.

The Florida Relay Service provides communications assistance to individuals with hearing, speech or vision disabilities. Dial 711.

For Parents, Guardians and Support Providers:

- Tips on teaching money management skills.
- Tools to support the teaching process.
- Information on federal and state assistance programs.
- Resources and information on organizations that can help.
- Guidance on employment, ABLE accounts, special needs trusts and more!
