

The Power of Stories

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

This engaging one-day workshop equips healthcare educators with effective storytelling techniques for clinical teaching. Participants will explore the psychology of narrative learning, develop confidence in delivery, and master the art of crafting compelling stories that enhance learning outcomes.

Through practical exercises and interactive sessions, you'll learn to create impactful educational narratives that resonate with learners and drive behaviour change in clinical settings. By the end of the workshop, participants will be equipped with practical tools to create memorable learning experiences through the power of storytelling.
