

Information security

We take our data privacy and protection responsibilities very seriously. Our information security management system governing all Walkers offices, IT Infrastructure and systems that enable the secure delivery of legal and professional services has been independently assessed and found to comply with the requirements of ISO/IEC 27001: 2013.

