Significant issues to consider

Insurance contracts contain policy exclusions, policy terms and conditions and policy limits and sub-limits that You should be aware of when deciding whether to be covered by this product. These may affect the amount of the payment that we will make to You if You have a claim.

We may express some policy terms, policy limits or sub-limits as being either a dollar amount or a percentage of the insured value, or some other amount, factor or item specified in the relevant clause within this document.

The Coverholder may vary the policy with our consent and alter the cover under the policy. If that occurs, we will issue a new PDS, provide a PDS update or otherwise advise You of any such changes in accordance with applicable laws.

It is a condition of provision of cover in respect of a Customer under the policy that the Coverholder obtains the agreed information in the Insurance Declaration from each Customer before cover is provided to that Customer and, subject to the provisions of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), we will not be liable to provide or to pay benefits where there has been misrepresentation or non-disclosure by a Customer. For these purposes we will treat You as if You did owe a duty of disclosure to us (see Special Condition 6.12 Applications for Cover).

Make sure you have the cover you need

You should consider the appropriate amounts and risks for which You need to be insured. If You do not obtain adequate coverage for the relevant risks, You may have to bear any uninsured losses Yourself.

Refer to "Basis of Settlement" below.

Basis of Settlement

You can choose whether Your Goods are insured on a “Replacement Cost” basis or for “Market Value”.

Under the Replacement Cost basis, if Your Goods are lost or totally destroyed, You receive the new replacement cost or the maximum of the specifically declared item value nominated on the Insurance Declaration but in no case will the value exceed the current market replacement value subject to the customer’s total declared value.

Under the Market Value basis, You only receive the replacement cost less a reasonable allowance for age, condition wear, tear and depreciation.

The correct Basis of Settlement selection is vital as an incorrect selection may possibly leave You without sufficient funds to cover Your loss.

If Your Goods are damaged, the reasonable cost of repair will be covered for an accepted claim regardless of which Basis of Settlement You have elected.

The following table sets out the Basis of Settlement and restrictions for specific items:

Item	Basis of settlement / restrictions
Computers and computer accessories Clothing Motor vehicles, motor bikes, caravans, boats and trailers	Market value only
Office, hotel, factory and any other business goods including plant and machinery	The lesser of the invoice value or the market value of Your Goods at the time of loss plus insurance, packing and freight
Pairs and sets	Only the lost or damaged part or parts covered
Antique(s), works of art and fine art	Reasonable cost of repair but not any depreciation or loss of value caused by the loss or damage. Maximum 10% of the declared value of the item for any depreciation or loss of value as a result of the repairs
Motor vehicles or motor bikes being driven under their own power	Not covered unless being driven by an authorised representative of the Removal Company for the purpose of loading or unloading or to and from Customs or Quarantine areas within the approved Removal Company or agent’s premises
Valuables worth more than $1,000	Limited to a maximum of $1,000 unless each item is specifically declared and valued in Your Insurance Declaration
Owner packed cartons	Maximum of $500 per carton for non delivery unless an itemised valued list of contents is supplied to the Removal Company prior to the commencement of transit. Goods packed by You are insured only for restricted cover unless otherwise agreed and noted on the Certificate of Insurance

Additional Benefits Covered

The following additional policy benefits are automatically included and provide cover for amounts in excess of the declared value. For full particulars, please refer to Additional Benefits Covered on page 11.

Additional Benefits Covered
General Average	In relation to transit by sea, cover for general average including salvage charges
Temporary Accommodation	The reasonable cost of temporary accommodation costs of $200 per day for 30 days or until Your Goods are delivered, whichever occurs first, as a result of an insured risk and Customer's Goods not delivered by the contracted delivery date

Excesses can apply

A Customer Excess applies under the policy. This excess is not an additional fee charged by us at the time of making a claim. Rather it is the uninsured first portion of a loss for which You are otherwise covered. The Removal Company must pay the first $2,000 in respect of a claim and You must pay the amount shown in the Certificate of Insurance.

Exclusions

This policy contains a number of exclusions, some of which are common in insurance policies. For example, we may not pay for loss or damage arising out of:

- Wear and tear, moths, vermin infestation, corrosion, contamination or deterioration;
- Mould, mildew or fungus, unless caused by an insured event and not otherwise excluded, except if agreed and noted on the Certificate of Insurance;
- Terrorism (storage risk only).

Some of the exclusions may be less common. Before making a decision about whether to obtain the benefit of coverage under this product, You should read the full details of all relevant exclusions.

Please refer to 'Exclusions From and Limitations of Cover' on page 13 for full details of these.

Special Conditions

Special conditions applicable to this product include conditions that apply in certain circumstances as well as Your obligations with which You need to comply. Please refer Special Conditions from page 15.

Special conditions include the following:

Termination of Authorised Representative Agreement	If the Removal Company is no longer an authorised representative for one of the reasons listed, the Insurers agree to manage and settle claims direct with the Customer
Loss of Customers' Pre Paid Removal Costs and Pre Paid Removal Deposits	In event of Removal Company liquidation, receivership, administration or bankruptcy, where the Removal Company does not perform the removal, this covers the refund of any such pre-paid amounts, where nominated

You should make yourself aware of all the terms and conditions that apply. If You do not meet them, we may be able to decline Your claim or reduce the claim payment.

Change of circumstances

You should also notify the Removal Company or us as soon as possible when Your circumstances change if they are relevant to Your cover. For instance, if You change the destination Your Goods are to be delivered to or You purchase or store additional goods. If You do not tell Your Removal Company or us of these changes, in the event of a claim You may not receive sufficient funds to cover Your loss.

Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

This is a consumer insurance contract under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us. This duty applies when you enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance.

Before you enter into, renew, extend or vary this contract of insurance we will ask you questions that are relevant to our decision to insure you and on what terms. When you answer the questions you must not give a false or misleading account of matters. Your response should tell us everything that you know about the question. Your response is relevant to whether we offer you insurance and the terms that are offered.

A misrepresentation made fraudulently is made in breach of the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

Consequences of failure to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

If you do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Circumstances relevant to your duty

Whether or not you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation is to be determined with regard to all the relevant circumstances.

If we know, or ought to know about your particular characteristics or circumstances, these characteristics or circumstances are taken into account in determining whether you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us.

Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) the following matters may be taken into account in determining whether you have taken reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation:

- (a) the type of consumer insurance contract in question, and its target market;
- (b) explanatory material or publicity produced or authorised by us;
- (c) how clear, and how specific, the questions we asked were;
- (d) how clearly we communicated to you the importance of answering those questions and the possible consequences of failing to do so;
- (e) whether or not an agent/insurance broker was acting for you;
- (f) whether the contract was a new contract or was being renewed, extended, varied or reinstated.

You are not to be taken to have made a misrepresentation merely because you:

- (g) failed to answer a question; or
- (h) gave an obviously incomplete or irrelevant answer to a question.

Duty of Disclosure under the Marine Insurance Act 1909

Your attention is drawn to Sections 23 to 27 of the Marine Insurance Act 1909 (Cth) and, in particular, that any contract of marine insurance is based on utmost good faith and in the absence of such good faith, may be avoided. Further, You have an obligation to disclose to us every material circumstance which is known to You and/or which in the ordinary course of business ought to be known to You. Every circumstance is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in fixing the premium or determining whether they will take the risk. If there is a failure to make such disclosure, we may avoid the contract.

Our contract with the Coverholder

The Insurers and the Coverholder have agreed policy terms. The policy is a contract of insurance between the Coverholder and the Insurers and contains all the details of the cover we provide.

This policy is made up of:

- the policy wording. It states what is covered, sets out the claims procedure, Exclusions and other terms and conditions of cover;
- the proposal, which is the information provided by the Coverholder to us;
- the Insurance Declaration, which is the information provided by You to us;
- the most current Policy Schedule issued by us. The Policy Schedule is a separate document unique to the Coverholder. It includes any changes, Exclusions, terms and conditions and may amend the policy;
- the most current Certificate of Insurance issued to You by the Removal Company. The Certificate of Insurance is a separate document unique to You. It includes any changes, Exclusions, terms and conditions and may amend the policy; and
- any other changes advised by us in writing (such as an endorsement). These changes vary or modify the above documents.

Please note, You are only covered for the cover option and risks shown as covered in the Certificate of Insurance.

How we calculate premiums

The amount we charge to cover Your Goods is made up of a premium and any government taxes and charges applicable.

The amount we charge varies depending on the information we receive from You about the risk to be covered by us. The higher the risk is the higher the charge. Some of the factors impacting the amount charged to cover Your Goods are:

- the value of the goods being removed or stored;
- the basis of settlement You select (market value or replacement value);
- the risk covered (transit and/or storage);
- the distance the goods are transported and/or the period for which the goods are stored; and
- the level of cover selected (Full Cover or Restricted Cover).

How you pay for the cover

The amount You are charged in respect of the insurance cover will be shown on Your Certificate of Insurance.

You must pay the charges in respect of transit insurance when You pay Your removal charges. Your Removal Company will invoice You for the charges in respect of storage insurance at the same time as the storage charges.

Goods and Services Tax

The insured values that You choose should include Goods and Services Tax (GST). In the event of a claim, if You are not registered for GST, we will reimburse You the GST component. If You are registered for GST, You will need to claim the GST component from the Australian Taxation Office.

You must advise us of Your correct input tax credit percentage where You are registered as a business and have an Australian Business Number. Any GST liability arising from Your incorrect advice is payable by You.

Cooling-off Period

After You apply for this product and You have received the PDS, You have 21 days to check that the cover meets Your needs. Within this time You may cancel the cover and receive a full refund of any amount paid in respect of the insurance, unless:

- the removal and/or storage of Your Goods has commenced;
- You have made a claim or become entitled to make a claim; or
- You have exercised any right or power You have in respect of Your cover or the policy has ended.

Your request will need to be forwarded to the Removal Company or to the address detailed on the removal contract or invoice.

How to make a claim

If You need to make a claim, please refer to Claims Procedure on page 13. If You have any queries please contact Your Removal Company as soon as possible or Cowden (03) 9686 6500.

This payment will be in addition to the total declared value.

3. Basis of Settlement

Depending on the Basis of Settlement selected by the Customer, if loss or damage occurs as a result of an insured risk, the Insurers will pay the Replacement Cost or Market Value as applicable, up to the declared value of any item (and subject to the restrictions set out below):

Where one or more articles in a pair or set (including lounge suites) are lost or damaged, unless otherwise agreed and noted in the Certificate of Insurance, the policy only covers the lost or damaged part or parts. The Insurers will not pay more than a proportionate part of the insured value of the pair or set without reference to any special value which they may have as a pair or set or depreciation or loss of value.

3.5 Antique(s), works of art and fine art

For antique(s), works of art and fine art, the Insurers will only pay the reasonable costs of repair and will not pay any depreciation or loss of value caused by the loss or damage.
