

Zurich Critical Illness Insurance

A financial ally in an unexpected health crisis

The diagnosis of a critical illness brings many challenges, including expenses that may compound stress and financial strain. Zurich's Critical Illness Insurance is designed to help by paying a cash benefit for a diagnosis of a covered critical illness.

This cash can be used wherever it's needed – keeping the focus on recovery and not on the financial impact of a critical illness.

How we deliver...

Zurich's underwriters:

- Listen to understand the specific needs of each organization.
- Customize group-priced benefit solutions.
- Simplify the administration of your program.

We provide:

- Flexible plans that can be customized for the specific needs of each organization
- The capability to work within a wide range of benefits administration platforms, whether utilizing our seamless online enrollment and administration platform or one managed by a broker or vendor.
- A dedicated support team for coordination of plan development, marketing, administration onboarding, and program management.

At Zurich, our customers' needs remain at the heart of everything we do.

Zurich Critical Illness Insurance, one of Zurich's Supplemental Benefits offerings, is independent of other medical coverage. It provides a lump-sum payment to a covered individual who is diagnosed with one or more of the critical illnesses outlined in the policy. The benefit is paid directly to the insured individual, who can choose how to use it, such as to cover deductibles, lost wages, household bills, alternative treatment or other needs.

A range of critical illnesses can be covered:

- Cancers and tumors, including skin cancer and benign brain tumors
- Heart and/or circulatory illnesses, which can include coronary artery disease and events such as a heart attack, stroke or ruptured aneurysm
- Organ disease requiring a transplant, such as end-stage renal failure
- Paralysis and other conditions that can result in loss of use, such as dismemberment, coma, severe burn, blindness and/or loss of speech
- Adult illnesses such as advanced Alzheimer's disease, Parkinson's disease and occupationally transmitted HIV or hepatitis
- Childhood conditions such as cleft palate and cerebral palsy

Coverage options and enhancements include family plans, broad limits and additional benefits for lodging, hospitalization, transportation and more.
