

Top 10 risks over the next 10 years

Source: Global Risks Report 2026,
World Economic Forum

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

1. Extreme weather events

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

2. Biodiversity loss and ecosystem collapse

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

3. Critical change to Earth systems

Economic

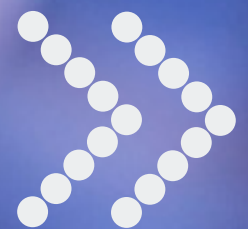

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

4. Misinformation and disinformation

Economic

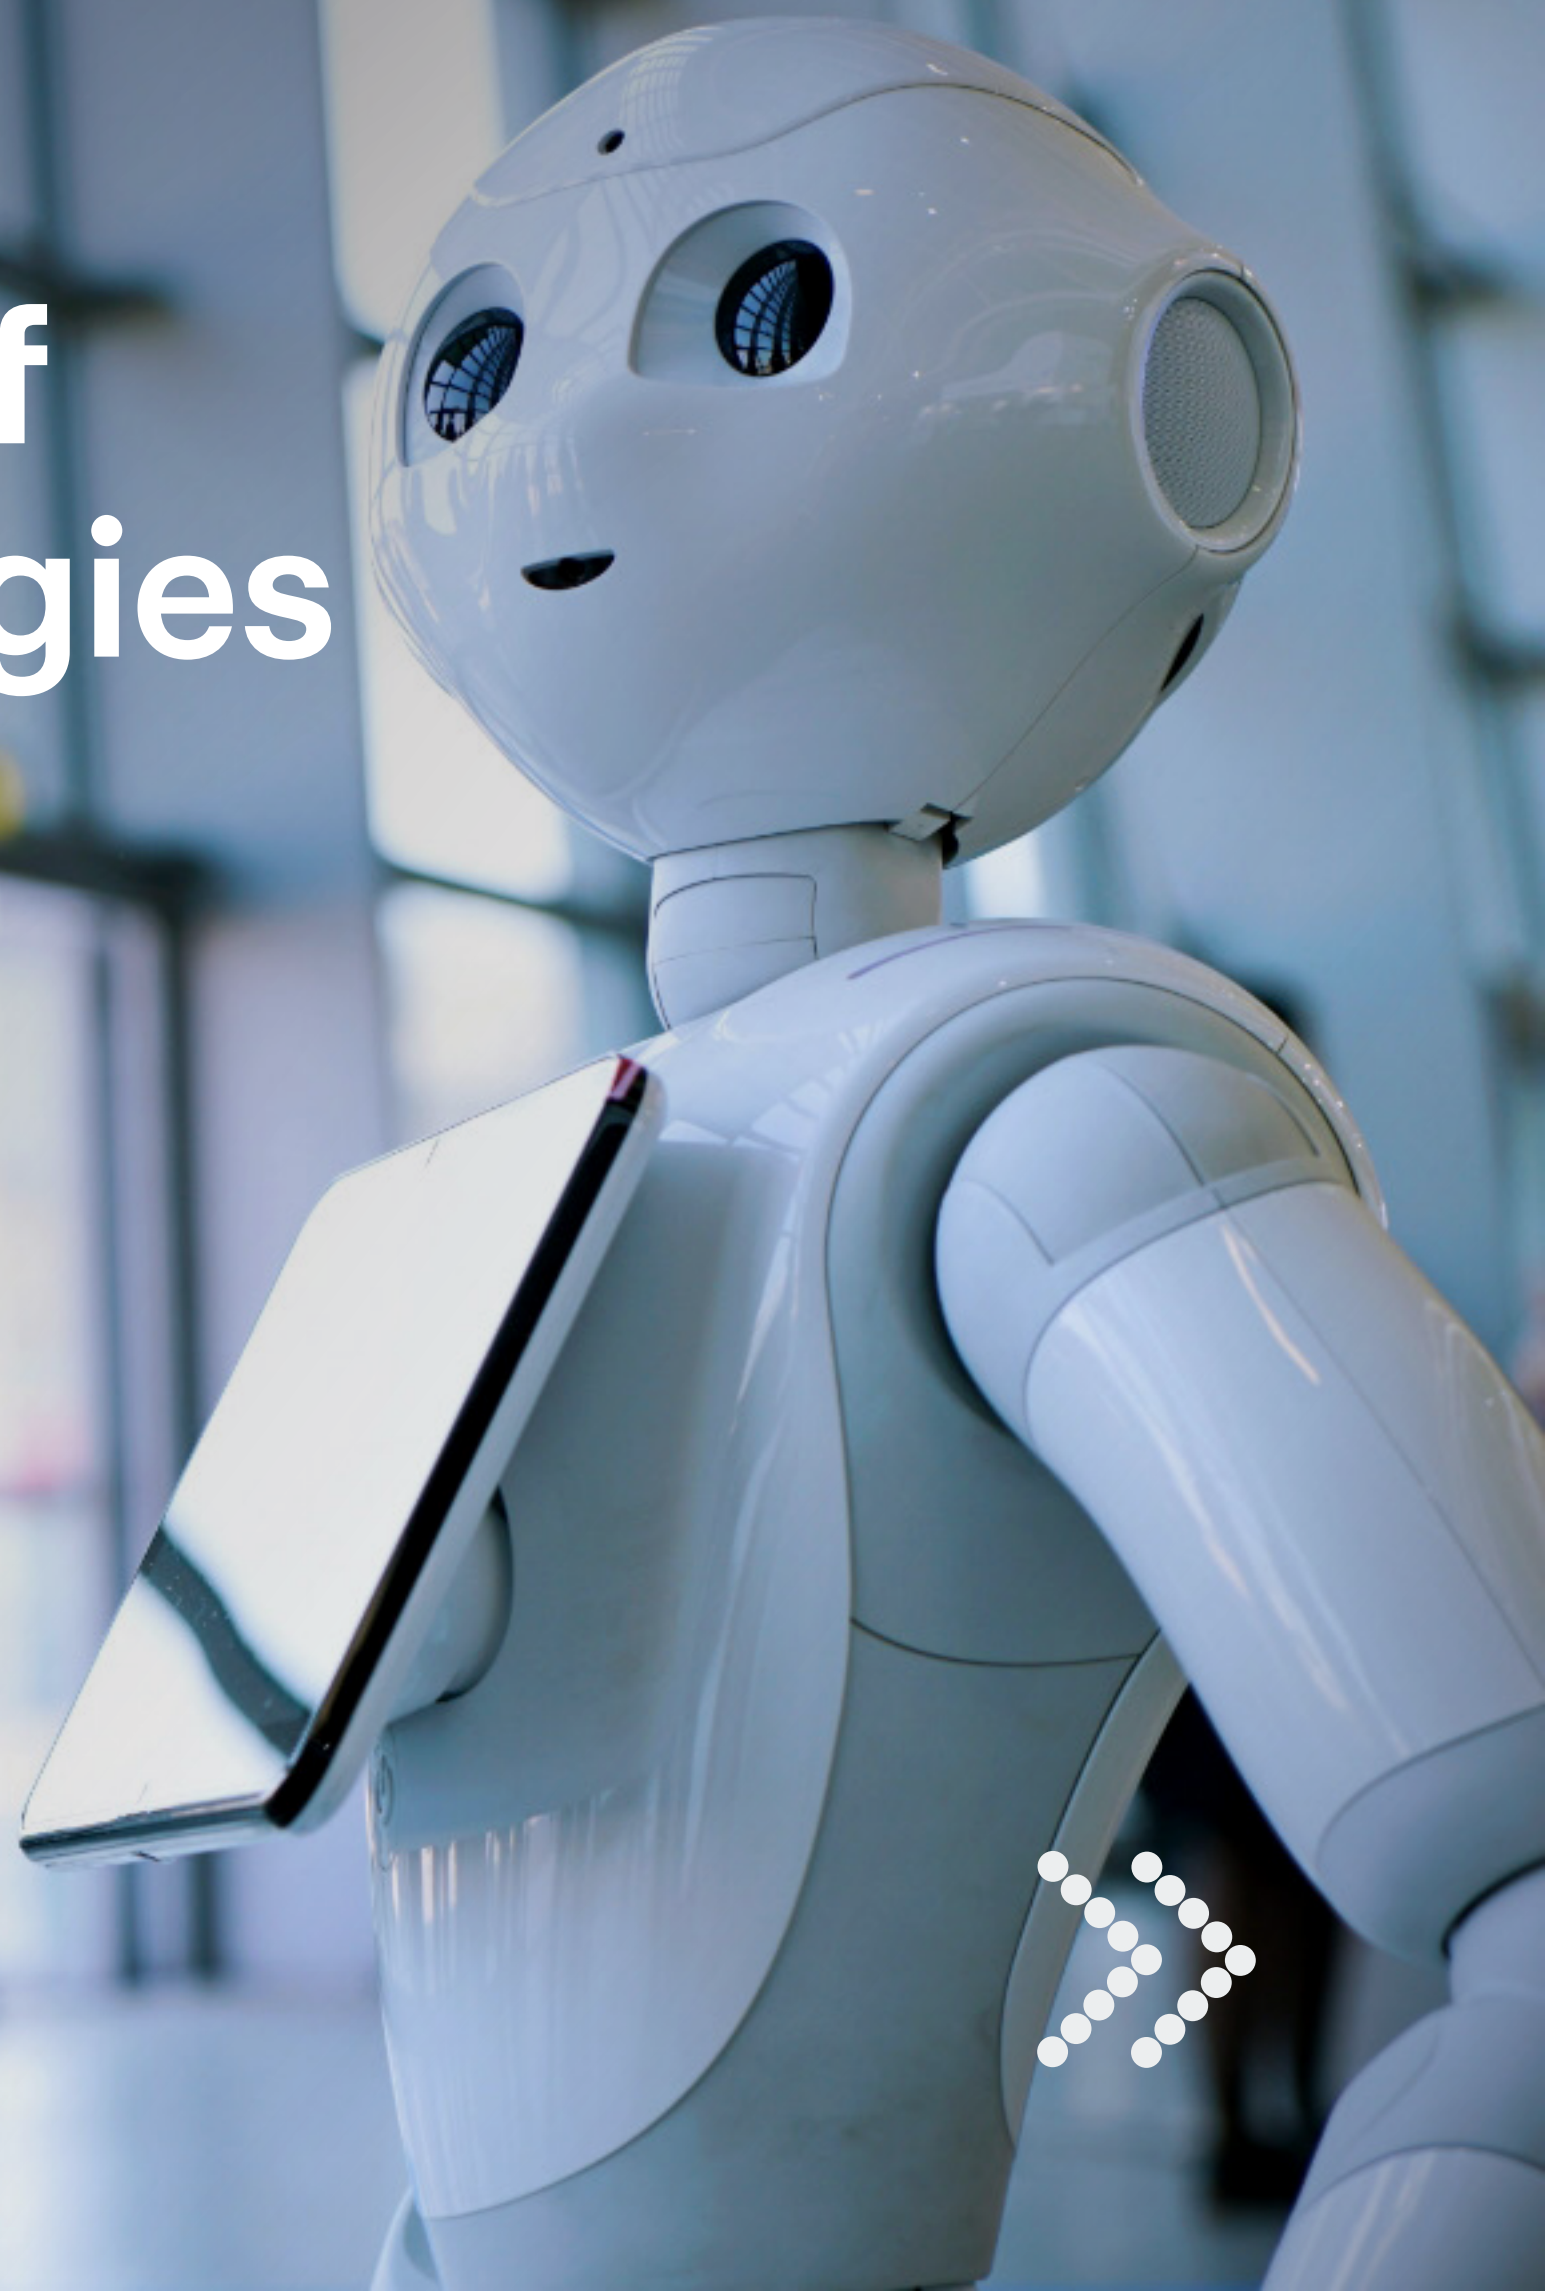

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

5. Adverse outcomes of AI technologies

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

6. Natural resource shortages

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

7. Inequality

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

8. Cyber insecurity

Economic

Environmental

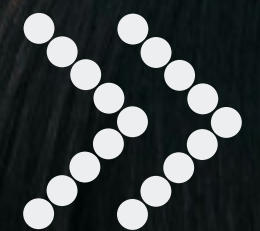

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

9. Societal polarization

TIME FOR CHANGE

Economic

Environmental

Geopolitical

Societal

Technological

10. Pollution

A photograph of a traffic jam on a multi-lane road. Several cars are visible, with thick, dark exhaust smoke billowing from their tailpipes, filling the air and partially obscuring the vehicles. The scene is captured from a low angle, emphasizing the volume of pollution. The background shows a hazy, overcast sky, suggesting a typical urban environment where air quality is often poor.