Starting out

To access the Fund Centre log on to Zurich International online (ZIO) using your usual login details. There is a link on the home page to the Fund Centre.

Please note that all extracts in this guide are based on the standard fund range.

Data on the Fund Centre is provided by FE, one of the UK's leading investment ratings and research agencies.

Fund Centre – home page

This is the first screen that you will come to.

All the funds are listed in alphabetical order along with their fund codes, FE sector, current unit price and date.

The screenshot shows the Zurich Fund Centre interface. At the top right is the Zurich logo. Below it is a disclaimer: "The fund information on these screens has been provided to help you understand how the fund is invested and is performing. It should not be used for making investment decisions. Please contact your relevant financial professional for further explanation or advice if you want to know if these funds are appropriate for you." Below the disclaimer is the "Fund information" section. It includes a "Select currency" dropdown menu set to "British pound" and a "Click here to access lifestyling" button. The "Search options" section has dropdowns for "Fund management group" (set to "All") and "Fund currency" (set to "All"). Below this is an "OR" section with an "Enter fund code" input field, a "Search" button, and buttons for "Download to Excel", "Download to Pdf", and "Clear". A note says: "Please note: if searching using more than one fund please separate with a comma." Below the search options is a navigation bar with tabs for "Prices", "Performance (cumulative) < 1 year", "Performance (cumulative) > 1 year", "Performance (discrete)", "Performance (annualised)", "Ratings & risk", and "Charges". Below this is a table of funds with columns: Fund name, Fund code, FE sector, Single price, Price date, Price picker, Chart, and Fund factsheet. The table lists five funds: Aberdeen Asia Pacific Equity, Aberdeen GF World Equity, Aberdeen Global Asia Pacific Equity, Aberdeen Global Asian Local Currency Short Duration Bond, and Aberdeen Global Chinese Equity.

Fund name	Fund code	FE sector	Single price	Price date	Price picker	Chart	Fund factsheet
Aberdeen Asia Pacific Equity	JJGBP	Asia Pacific Excluding Japan	1.9060	18/12/2014
Aberdeen GF World Equity	3VUSD	Global Equities	17.8630	18/12/2014

Aberdeen Global Chinese Equity	1QUSD	Asia Pacific Excluding Japan	23.3230	18/12/2014

The Fund Centre allows you to rebase all performance figures into various currencies. Go to 'Select currency' at the top of the screen and choose from the drop down menu.

Currency options are based on plan currencies as follows:

The default currency is dependant on the plan set up. The 'local currency' option will show fund information in the fund's currency of denomination. e.g all US dollar denominated funds will be shown in US dollar and all Euro funds shown in Euro.

This screenshot is identical to the one above, but with the "Select currency" dropdown menu open. The menu lists the following options: British pound (selected), Australian dollar, Euro, Hong Kong dollar, Japanese yen, Local currency, Norwegian Krone, Singapore dollar, Swedish krona, Swiss franc, United Arab Emirates Dirham, and US dollar. A blue circle highlights the dropdown menu.

Fund Centre search options

6. Ratings and risk

This tab shows the annual volatility, alpha, beta and sharpe ratio data, based on total return and is annualised over three years, to the last month end. As some funds do not have a three year track record due to their launch dates, this information is not available.

'Crown ratings' are FE's quantitative based system designed to highlight funds that have had superior, consistent performance in relation to risk, relative to their peer groups. The system is founded on historical performance, volatility and consistency annualised over three years. The lowest rated funds in a sector carry a single crown and the highest are awarded five crowns. Funds without a three year track record are not rated.

Fund name	FE Crown rating	Annual volatility	Alpha	Beta	Sharpe

7. Charges

This tab shows the following charges relating to the funds.

ZIL discounted initial charge

Zurich's discounted initial charge is the level at which customers investing through Zurich's corporate savings plans are charged on their initial investment. The charge is discounted due to the strength of our buying power with fund houses as a large financial organisation.

ZIL management charge

The Zurich management charge is a charge assigned to Zurich's mirror fund range which is not currently available on the IPP.

Fund AMC

The fund annual management charge (AMC) is the annual management charge linked to each fund and is reflective of the institutional share class offered.

Fund name	ZIL discounted initial charge	ZIL management charge	Fund AMC %
Aberdeen Asia Pacific Equity	-	-	0.87
Aberdeen GF World Equity	0.00	0.00	0.65
Aberdeen Global Asia Pacific Equity	0.00	0.00	0.75

Fund Centre information tabs (continued)

The fund factsheets generated are dated as at the last month end and provide information on fund size, fund objective, asset allocation, discrete performance and cumulative performance (when available). The discrete performance will always be to the last quarter end and cumulative performance will be to the last month end.

Performance data is the performance based on discounted charges

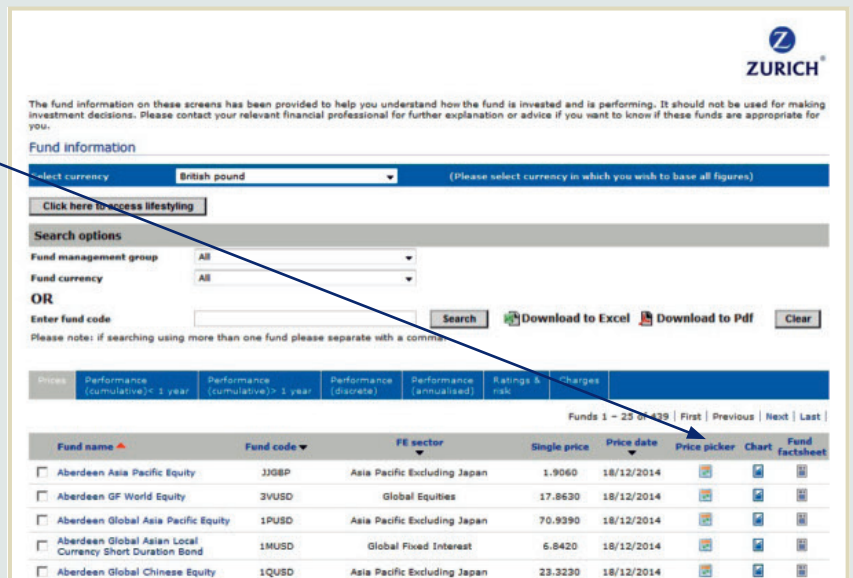

All performance data is calculated on a bid-to-bid basis so where funds have an initial charge this is not reflected in the performance. The performance generated within the factsheets is based on the fund's currency of denomination.

The fund fact sheets can be saved and printed.

Price Picker

If you click on the Price picker button alongside your chosen fund, you can select a historical date and view the price 'as at' that date.

Fund Centre charting tool

On each of the information tabs (Price, Performance (cumulative) < 1 year etc.) there is a column called 'Chart'. To access this you need to click on the chart icon that corresponds with the fund of your choice.

Once selected, the charting tool function will open up in its own 'pop up' window.

The y-axis of the chart shows percentage growth and the x-axis shows the selected time periods. By default the chart is set to show a five year period or for those funds that do not have a five year track record, the chart will default to since launch (the time period is detailed under the x-axis).

Once open, the charting tool will show performance of the selected fund over five years or from its launch date if the fund was launched more recently. Launch dates are listed in a column on the 'Performance (cumulative) < 1 year' and 'Performance (cumulative) > 1 year' tabs.

The charting tool allows you to make changes to the chart such as adding comparative funds or indices, changing the time frame, etc. This can be done using the 'Choose an instrument' section in the top right hand corner.

Within this section are two buttons – 'Funds' and 'Sector & Indices'.

Choosing a fund

If 'Fund' is selected, you then have the option to search for a fund by either selecting 'Select manager' or 'Select sector' to narrow down the search. These are contained within the section titled 'Search fund'.

When searching for a fund via the 'Search manager' drop down, only the fund managers that relate to the funds available on the fund range will be listed.

If you choose to search for a fund via the 'Select sector' drop down, again, only sectors that relate to the funds available on the fund range will be listed.

'Select Fund' will return funds from which you can select the fund you wish to add to the chart. You can add it by clicking the 'Add fund' button.

Please note that you can only filter the funds by either manager or sector, not both.

Choosing a sector

If you choose 'Select sector', a drop down option will be available.

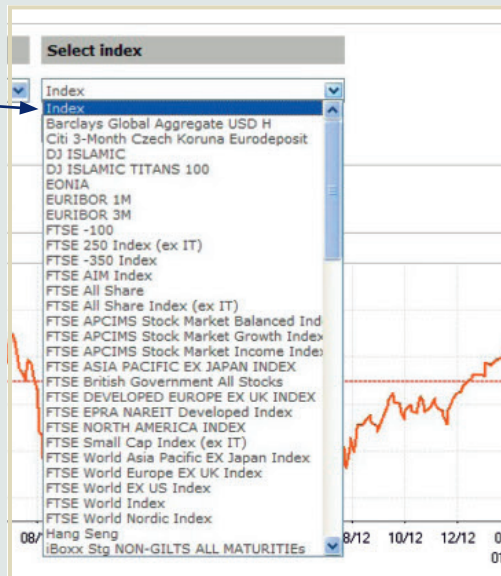

All you need to do is to select one sector from the drop down and add it to the chart via the 'Add to chart' button.

Choosing an index

If you choose 'Select index' a drop down option will be available.

All you need to do is to select one index from the drop down and add it to the chart via the 'Add index to chart' button. This section will contain FE's standard indices list.

A maximum of ten instruments can be added to the charting tool e.g. ten funds, or five funds, two sectors and three indices.

Manipulating the chart

The charting tool allows you to change the timescale of the chart.

Whichever timescale is chosen, once the 'Update chart' button is selected the chart will re-plot the curve(s) of the chosen instrument(s) accordingly.

The charting tool provides a detailed key of the instruments plotted on the chart. This section allows you to see which curves on the chart relate to which instrument and allows you to control what is plotted.

The check box positioned alongside each of the instruments controls is automatically ticked, if you wish to remove an instrument from the chart then untick the check box, the chart will update automatically.

By selecting the 'export to PDF' button the chart you have created will be converted into a PDF which you can save and print.

The chart performance is calculated on a bid-to-bid, total return basis and is calculated to the last price point, as marked in the source underneath the chart. The currency the individual instrument is displayed in is based on local currency as listed in the table beneath the chart within the column titled 'Currency'.

Fund Centre shortlist functionality

You can add funds to a shortlist in order to carry out further analysis. Portfolio performance and analysis can also be formulated from a fund short list.

To the left of each fund name is a check box. If you wish to add a fund to your shortlist you need to tick this box (see example opposite) for each fund you want added.

Fund Centre product scan

From the shortlisted funds home page (as described previously), you can now select the funds that you wish to carry over into your 'product scan'. This is the tool that enables you to build portfolios.

To the left of each fund name is a check box and only the boxes which are ticked will carry through to the product scan. You can still add more funds at this stage by selecting the 'Add more funds' button. When selecting this, it takes you back to the main Fund Centre home page.

When you are happy with your selection, click on the 'Product scan' button.

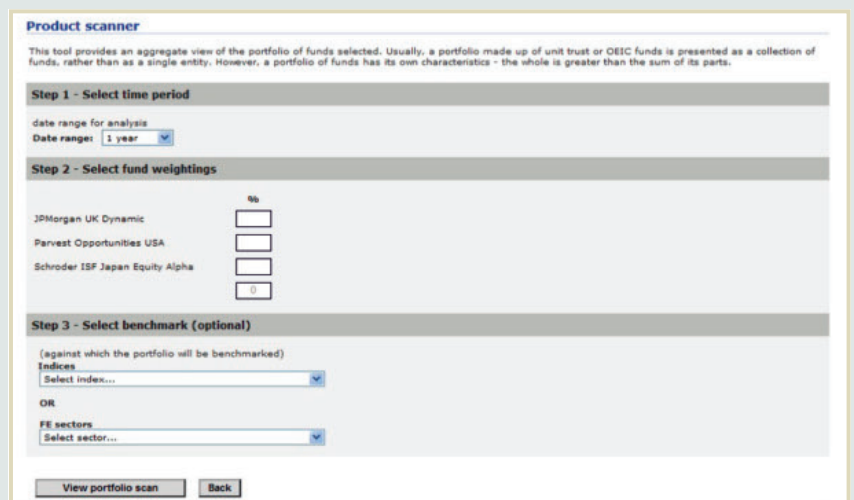

You can compare various performances in chart format.

Please note that a maximum of 20 funds can be selected to pass through to the product scan. If more than 20 funds are selected then a warning message will appear. You will then need to de-select some funds.

You also have the option to use the 'Clear all' button. If this button is selected, regardless of any funds contained within the shortlist, all funds will be removed and the following message will appear:

The 'Back' link will then take you back to the main Fund Centre.

After selecting the 'Product scan' button this will then take you to the following page where you have the option to select a time period, the fund weightings that will make up your portfolio and an index or sector with which to benchmark your portfolio against.

Fund Centre product scan (continued)

When selecting a date range and one or more funds do not have sufficient history for that selected date range then a message will appear to inform you of this. If this happens, the product scan will default to the start of performance history for the youngest fund.

The weightings for each of the funds should always add up to 100. If the weightings you enter do not add up to 100, an error message will appear as:

'Weightings should add up to 100 exactly.'

If you wish, you can select one index or one sector against which to compare your portfolio's performance.

Finally, click on the 'View portfolio scan' button, to automatically generate a 'Z-Scan' report, a Zurich branded, PDF output which you can save and print.
