Anti-Snoring Pillow

Patented for a quieter night.

The patented Anti-Snoring pillow works via a specially designed inflatable "head-side roller", which induces side sleep and thus reduces or eliminates snoring.

Stone Pine and Wool Pillow

The vitality of stone pine.

The filling of the Wellness stone pine pillow consists of pure new wool and high quality stone pinewood flakes. The positive properties of this wood are scientifically proven: stone pinewood reduces the heart rate during sleep and strengthens the cardiovascular system. At the same time vagus activity is increased – this has a regulating and calming effect on heart activity and breathing and stimulates the digestive process.

The Cool Pillow

Keep a cool head!

This pillow has a pleasant cooling effect thanks to its integral fleece and ensures a comfortably balanced climate for the head. Science suggests that if the bloodflow to the head is too strong and generates too much heat, it is harder to fall asleep. Thus, with a cooler head, it is easier to fall asleep and stay asleep. The HEFEL Cool pillow will without a doubt help you fall asleep swiftly and enjoy a relaxing night's sleep.

Cherry Pit Pillow

The traditional Swiss remedy

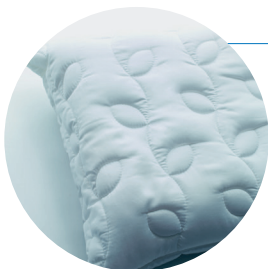

For hundreds of years, Swiss farmers used to put bags of cherry pits on the stove. During the day, the pits would heat up and then be used to soothe muscle aches.

Cherry pit pillows can also be cooled if desired and used as cooling packs. Please mention how you would like your pillow when ordering.

Sananature

A truly exceptional dual-layered natural pillow, warm and soft, yet fully supportive

TMX Trigger Pillow

Discover the new dimension of regenerative sleep

People are constantly on the move - even while they sleep. The head alone is over-rotated and over-extended more than 100 times. The result: a physiologically unfavorable position that can cause chronic pain in the long term, e.g. in the shoulder/neck muscles, the cervical spine and the head itself.

The pillow makes the difference: You relax and the TMX Trigger Pillow works for you on your recovery. With its integrated trigger spots, the pillow influences anatomical and physiological bottlenecks of the autonomic nervous system as well as circulatory nodes where the supply currents of the human skull are regulated. In this way, the TMX Trigger Pillow promotes active regeneration - just like a physiotherapist.
