Navigate through the complexity of Cyber

What is the financial impact of a ransomware or a data leakage for my company?

We support you in quantifying cyber exposure to prioritize controls and justify your cyber defence investment plans. Using both our expertise and historical risk data, together with our powerful threat simulation engine, we define the risk exposure of relevant cyber threat scenarios facing your business. Working with Zurich Resilience Solutions, you can directly monitor the impact of implementing specific controls.

Bring clarity and simplification

We assist you to navigate through cyber complexity

Combine technology and risk expertise

We support you to monitor your cyber risks and investments

Leverage unbiased solutions for any customer

We help both SMEs (Small and Medium Enterprises) and bigger clients with their cyber risks

We support SMEs by providing them with a pragmatic approach to cyber resilience where their investments can easily be justified and prioritized.

We support Large Corporates with their full cyber strategy roadmap and their long-term investments. Our largest clients can effectively manage their first-party cyber risks, and those connected to their third-party suppliers.

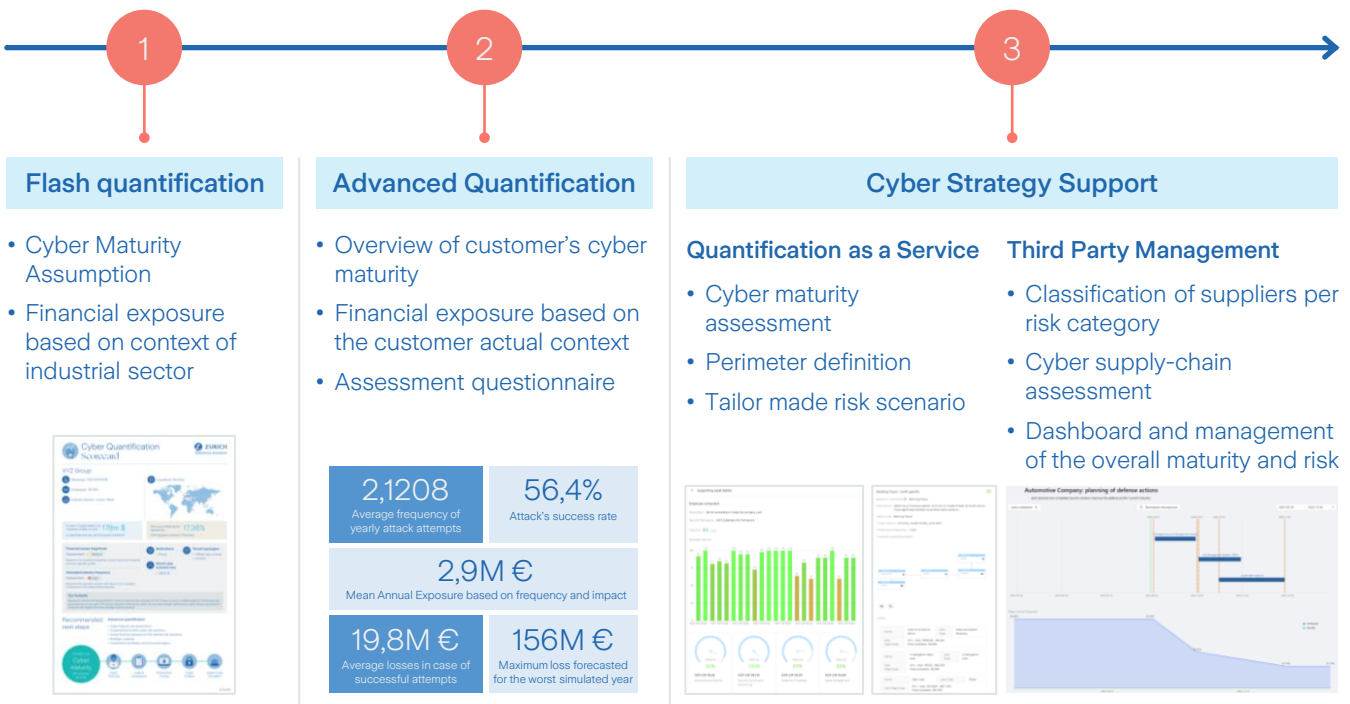

Our cyber prevention services help our clients achieve a better cyber maturity where prevention empowers clients with a proactive approach to cyber resilience.
