

Hubert-Philipp Sprosec

Member of the Board of Directors Zurich Austria

Nationality: Austrian

Date of Birth: 1983

Professional Experience

Hubert Sprosec has served as Chief Underwriting Officer Retail and member of the Executive Board of Zurich Insurance Austria since 1 January 2026. Since 2024, he has headed the Non-Life Underwriting Technical Function, where he is responsible for technical risk management, the ongoing development of underwriting processes, and the overall direction of non-life underwriting.

Previously, beginning in 2018, Hubert Sprosec served as Head of Retail Non-Motor, overseeing the technical and operational management of the non-motor private and small Business (SME) lines. From 2014 to 2018, he was responsible for product management for private non-life products.

Between 2012 and 2014, he led Technical Underwriting as well as the Re-Underwriting function. In this role, he played a central part in technical quality assurance, risk assessment, and the further development of underwriting standards.

Hubert Sprosec began his career at Zurich in 2009 as Assistant to the Head of Reinsurance and Co-Insurance.

Alongside his professional responsibilities at Zurich, he serves as a university lecturer, teaching a range of insurance-related and business-administration topics. He holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from the Vienna University of Economics.

Personal

A native of Upper Austria, Hubert Sprosec is a German native speaker and is fluent in English. In his free time, he is passionate about sports, especially running, and regularly undertakes extended hiking tours. He draws most of his energy from spending time with his family and the people close to him. Hubert Sprosec is particularly proud of his son Leopold. He appreciates the balance between urban life in Vienna and his hometown of Großraming in Upper Austria, where he maintains strong personal roots.

